Zeta Lambda Chapter

Homecoming Zeta Lambda celebrates 40th

It's an exciting time for Alpha Tau Omega, as the 1999 Homecoming is the Zeta Lambda chapter's 40th.

And, no other fraternity on campus celebrates Homecoming like the ATOs. We have more alumni return for the weekend than any other fraternity on campus, and being ATOs, we have more fun and brotherhood.

For the third year in a row, an assessment won't be charged to any alumni or guests. However, a fish bowl will once again be set up out front for those who wish to contribute and help cover some of the costs.

The schedule for this year's Homecoming is similar to years past, with one exception. Brother Dwain Taylor has organized a Friday night dinner for the charter members (See related story). Though the older members of the fraternity have been targeted, all alumni are invited to attend.

Things will kick off with a Thursday night "Early Bird" party at the house, but things will really get into gear on Friday.

At 9:30 a.m. Friday, all brothers are invited to play in the annual golf tournament at nearby Murray Country Club. The four-man scramble will cost $40 and brothers are asked to organize their own teams. If you don't have a team, we'll pair you up with someone.

As of now, there will not be any refreshments supplied by the fraternity, but feel free to bring your own.

Following the Alumni Dinner at 6:00 p.m., the cocktail party will get underway at approximately 8 p.m.

On Saturday morning, we'll have the alumni breakfast meeting at the house, beginning at 10 a.m.

Alumni Dinner

Charter ATOs plan dinner on Friday night

In an attempt to bring home as many charter members as possible for Zeta Lambda's 40th Homecoming, several local ATOs have organized a dinner prior to Friday evening's cocktail party.

This dinner, which will be held in the carriage house behind the fraternity house, is open to all ATO alumni.

The evening will get underway at 5:00 p.m. with a cash bar. Dinner will begin at 6:00 p.m. Dress is casual and the meal will include catfish, hush puppies, white beans and french fries.

Also, vans with designated drivers will be made available to carry spouses or friends back to their hotel or wherever they want to go.

To accommodate everyone, it is asked that you drop a note to Dwain Taylor if you'll be attending the event. Please mail your reservations to Dwain Taylor at:
